Abstract

Introduction: The training of a mujahid human being is a special type of educational principles that has been given a lot of attention in Islam, and in this regard, some characteristics have been mentioned in the Qur'an for it, because the training of this type of human being can have many effects on human societies. Therefore, the purpose of this research is to investigate the definition and characteristics of a mujahid man based on the verses of the Holy Quran.

Methods: According to the subject documentation presented in this research, the research method is descriptive-analytical and the method of collecting library information, which was collected from documentary studies and researched and described using the method of analyzing Quranic-religious texts.

Results: We achieved this important thing that since the beginning of Islam, the spiritual education of the mujahid man is always emphasized and paid attention to by the religion of Islam and the Qur'an, and he is considered a perfect example of a human being who, in addition to possessing character and moral qualities, also pays great attention to the teachings of the Qur'an.

Conclusion: Based on these components, what shows the legitimacy and dedication of a Mujahid man's education is that he has characteristics such as preferring the hereafter to this world, having strong faith, having the spirit of trust in God Almighty, hoping for divine mercy, facing justice and guidance. Being a prayerful person is tolerance and perseverance against the hardships of struggle, having the spirit of enjoining good and forbidding evil, taking responsibility, obeying divine guidance and leadership, and anti-tyranny.
